

BASED IN KINGMAN, AZ • SERVING EVERYWHERE ELSE

Technological Solutions for People with Better Things to Do.

I build systems that don’t require a master’s degree to operate.

High-end engineering delivered with the enthusiasm of a librarian on a Tuesday.

The Jargon Jar

Hover over the red dot. I owe you plain language.

Synergy		Scalable
Leverage		Bandwidth
User-Centric

The Departments

Four distinct operations. One point of contact.

The Design Bureau

DESIGN & BRAND

I design before I develop. Websites, graphic design, menus, signage, pitch decks – polished visuals that look like you meant it. Brand discovery included.

Dept. of Cooperation

INTEGRATIONS

Your apps talk to each other without arguing. Clean handoffs so you stop copying and pasting between platforms.

The Self-Governing Bureau

AUTOMATION

Repetitive tasks are for machines. Go have a sandwich. Small automations that save hours – not grand speeches about disruption.

The Permanent Observation Post

SUPPORT

I watch the servers so you can watch the sunset. Direct help over text or call. No maze. No ticket limbo. No chatbot.

The Diagrams

Architecture explained without the alphabet soup.
